Beverley Jessup

Beverley Jessup qualified as a speech and language therapist in 1990 from De Montfort University with a BSc in Speech Pathology and Therapy.

Since qualifying she has worked in a range of settings:

- Community clinics
- Mainstream schools (primary and middle)
- Special schools (for those with moderate, severe, profound learning and physical difficulties particularly with pupils using alternative and augmentative communication e.g. signing and/or communication aids)
- Residential settings for adults with learning difficulties
- Language Unit
- Specialist Residential school for pupils with specific speech and language impairment (St. Catherine's School, Ventnor)

Therapy

Before therapy can take place, a thorough assessment of the client's communication skills needs to take place. This will also involve discussion with the parents/carer. The initial assessment usually takes up to one and a half hours according to complexity. Beverley can offer group therapy for schools

Fee structure

The fee structure is reviewed annually every January. Please contact me for details.

Training

Beverley is a registered

- Makaton tutor
- Hanen trained
- Elklan tutor
- Derbyshire Language Scheme tutor.

Workshops

There are a range of Makaton workshops for most users:

- Teachers
- Teaching staff
- Nursery staff
- Parents
- Periphery staff/users

The Elklan courses are normally accredited to NVQ Level 2 /3 and are linked to Plymouth University and the Open College Network South West (OCNSW). They are recognised nationwide. Beverley can also construct courses to fit into your specific requirements
